Subject: Microsoft case

It is very apparent that the efforts to dismantle and punish Microsoft was motivated by jealous political factors. Microsfot has been responsible for the spread of computer use through its innovative and cost-effective products.

We strongly support Mocreosoft, and urge that any punitive action be stopped.

Have no idea what you hear in Washington, but down here, all I hear is how unjust it was to endeavor to curtail Microsfot.

Hope that the Justice Department will drop the case as is.

Sincerely,

A. Brisolara
